JUST A NOTE:

I hope you noḴced our nicely restriped parking lot! We had a volunteer donate the striper and his Ḳme to complete the job. We only had to buy the paint. God is good!

Don't forget to start your Thanksgiving off with Mass here on Thursday at 10:00 AM. It is such a wonderful way to begin this holiday as the very word, Eucharist, means to give thanks. We all can take so much for granted, so it is good to have a day when we pause and express graḴtude to our God, to our families, our friends who have stayed by us, and to fellow parishioners. I also express my thanks to each of you and your prayerful support for my service with you.

Advent begins next weekend, as well as in our culture, the Christmas season. These two seasons oIJen collide, so we need to make an extra effort to make some space for prayer and reflecḴon during the weeks of Advent. Be sure to pick up one of our several Advent books in the gathering area tables with their daily suggesḴons to keep us focused and centered on the coming of Christ, the true reason for the season. Let's keep our focus on Christ during this busy holiday Ḳme!

Don't forget to make your Catholic Services Appeal pledge and a special thank you for all of you who have pledged thus far. Let's get this done by the end of December, if possible, and show our best effort to the Archdiocese.

I extend to you and your families a blessed Thanksgiving and safe travels if you will be on the road.
Deacon Lucio

Our Thanksgiving Day Mass will be Thursday, November 26th at 10:00am. Please join us and give thanks to God.

LITURGY & MUSIC NOTES
by Richard Charnigo, Music Director

Today's Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, brings us near to the end of the liturgical year. The new liturgical year will begin with the First Sunday of Advent on November 28/29. Sunday readings fo9llow a three-year plan, and we shall be moving from "Cycle A" into "Cycle B". There is also an upcoming Holy Day of ObligaBon, namely the Immaculate ConcepBon on Tuesday, December 8th. The Immaculate ConcepBon refers to the Blessed Virgin Mary herself being conceived withour original sin. As Catholics, we also believe that she had no personal sin. These were fiÔ ng circumstances for her to be the Mother of God.
With the change in liturgical year, we shall again rotate musical seÔ ngs for the sung prayers common to Sunday Masses. We shall use English chant seÔ ngs for the Alleluia (#205 in the Gather 4 hymnal), the Holy, Holy, Holy (#211), the Mystery of Faith (#214), and the Great Amen (#215). We shall use a LaBn chant seÔ ng for the Lamb of God (#356). The Gloria is not sung on Sundays during Advent, but we shall use an English chant seÔ ng (#203) for the Holy Day of the Immaculate ConcepBon and during the Christmas season.

Please Pray For: Tim Ash, Helen Baker, Gay Baumgardner,Fr. Jerry Bell, Gene Bielefeld, Eddie Bryant, Janet Chambers, Carol Chesney, Ariel Collett, Sharon Comstock, Dcn.
